Divorce and Family Breakdown

Do you need help?

If you are involved in separating from your partner, divorce, sorting out the house and finances, and if there are issues concerning the children or violence, you are almost certain to need help. Many of these problems are simply too over facing and complex to resolve on your own. You need sure guidance to find the right solution for you. Busbys have the knowledge and expertise to be your guide.

What can we do?

We have many years of experience across the whole range of family breakdown and finance. We represent clients throughout Devon and Cornwall in all courts. We are contracted with the Legal Services Commission to provide one-stop help with government aided Legal Help and Legal Aid. We are a firm which is Law Society accredited in Family Law. You can be assured of our legal skills throughout the area of separation, divorce, financial and housing issues, domestic violence and all issues relating to children.

Will it be expensive?

The best advice is not expensive—it is priceless. We offer a free first interview to diagnose your problems and plan the way ahead. Many clients are eligible for free legal help, and if court proceedings are necessary, they may qualify for legal aid which may be free or subject to a reasonable contribution. In all other cases, we hide nothing from you. We tell you what the likely costs are before you incur them, and we keep you informed throughout.

What next?

It is always difficult to share your private concerns with a solicitor. At Busbys, we are consistently rated as excellent in our clients' satisfaction questionnaires. We get a great many recommendations from our clients. We want to help you and we will demystify the whole process, communicating in clear English. You have nothing to fear. You just need the courage to seek our help.

Related matters

We offer our clients a holistic approach will be pleased to advise you on other matters such as preparing or updating your will if we think it is important. We will also give you guidance on all other relevant issues.
